PROFILE

I am in New Zealand with a Working Holiday Visa. I arrived to New Zealand 1st April and I will be in the country for at least a year, willing to work as much as I can. I am a hardworker and I am always ready to learn something new. I got my degree in Environmental engineer in 2017 and I worked in the city hall's environmental department for a year (Argentina). I have worked in different bars and restaurants over the last years too.
